b7C

A Special Agent of the Los Angeles Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) was requested to contact [redacted] Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, Burbank, California, concerning a telegram which he received and which telegram was similarly received by Senator Frank Church at the Subcommittee on Multinational Corporations, Washington, D. C.

On March 3, 1976, [redacted] Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, was interviewed by a Special Agent of the FBI, Los Angeles, California, concerning a telegram received by him from [redacted]

[redacted] acknowledged the received of a Western Union telegram from [redacted]

[redacted] stated he received the telegram on February 9, 1976, and furnished the telegram to the Lockheed Industrial Security Office. [redacted] stated that upon the initial receipt of the telegram, he did not react; however, shortly thereafter he began to worry and became fearful for the safety of his family and for his own personal safety. [redacted] stated his fear concerned possible action from Japanese terrorist organizations and, therefore, the telegram was furnished to his security department which department took initial steps to provide him with security and protection.

[redacted] was advised that the FBI could not provide him with personal security or protection. [redacted] stated that he had previously notified local authorities, Burbank, California, and local authorities, Bel Air, California, concerning a request for additional security measures to be taken in his behalf.

On March 3, 1976, [redacted] Industrial Security, Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, Burbank, California, was interviewed by a Special Agent of the FBI, Los Angeles, concerning the telegram received by [redacted] on February 9, 1976. [redacted] stated that the Industrial Security
